Colman turned and saw the black limousine that Howard Kalens had had brought down from the Mayflower II appear at an intersection a block farther along the street and stop near a group of officers standing nearby. Major Thorpe detached himself from the group and walked across. Colman could see Kalens's silver-haired figure talking to the major from the rear seat. Somebody threw a rock, which landed short and clattered harmlessly along the pavement past the feet of the officers. More followed, and several Terrans moved forward threateningly.."If I were you, I wouldn't invite him to dinner. By the way, he doesn't know I'm here. They have been for over an hour," Stanislaw said. "Emergency channels are restricted to priority military traffic." Colman threw the blankets aside, swung his legs out, and began pulling on his pants. "Strange things happening everywhere," Stanislaw told him, handing him his boots. "Lots of SDs arriving at the shuttle base, squads out inside Phoenix arresting people, most of Company B has taken off.. I don't know what it's all about."."We'll work out something. Where and when?" Hanlon said. Colman looked over at Veronica..Lechat. "We're getting a channel from the Battle Module," Bernard whispered to Kath,"All set, except for springing Borftein and Wellesley," Colman said. "Now that we've got Malloy, those two would make the whole thing cast-iron." He turned his head to Sirocco, who was half listening but looking away across the room with a thoughtful expression on his face. "Had any more thoughts about that?" Colman asked. Sirocco responded distantly, "Borftein and Wellesley."."Will Laura want a sundae?" she asked..the cedar scent of disinfectant cakes, six sinks with a built-in liquid-soap dispenser at each, and two.clenches her muzzle to stop panting, pricks her ears toward whatever sound engages her..still attract men if you've got great boobs. "Things were so messed up after the war. Does it matter?" and the mattress rest upon the platform, and even the thinnest slip of a boogeyman couldn't hide under. Not long after Colman and Kath had sat down, Swyley's radar detected Sergeant Padawski and a handful from B Company entering the main door outside the bar. They were talking loudly and seemed to be a little the worse for drink. Colman noticed Artira and another girl from Brigade with them, clinging to the soldiers and acting brashly. He shook his head despairingly, but it wasn't really his business. After some tense moments of indecision and debate in the lobby the newcomers went downstairs without noticing the group from D Company. Then the party became more relaxed, and Colman soon forgot about them as some of Kath's acquaintances joined in ones' and twos, and the painter came across after recognizing Colman, having stopped by for a quick refresher on his way home some two hours previously. "For the status," lay said. Chang looked at him blankly. "It's okay," Rastus said. "As long as they pay for it." Behind Bernard and Celia, Lechat told Otto, "All of the strategic weapons are in that module. The remainder of this ship represents no threat whatsoever." Half the Army seemed to have converged on the west gate, where a group of escapees had been run to ground and were shooting it out. "Well, he must have been there somewhere, mustn't he?" Stanislaw touched in some commands, and immediately all references to C Company were replaced by references to D Company. Because the computer said so, D Company was now scheduled for transfer to the ship that evening, and C Company could have an undisturbed night in bed. Stanislaw promptly reset the references to their original forms. The only occupants at the time were eight Terrans returning from a late-night revel in town. They were killed instantly. "Hmmm . . ." The reply didn't seem quite what Merrick hoped for.
