It's only that."I'd like to walk under your trees a bit, Azver," the Herbal said, with a long sigh..Sorcery was practiced by men-its only real distinction from witchery. Sorcerers trained one another, and had some knowledge of the True Speech. Sorcery included both base crafts as defined by Halkel (finding, mending, dowsing, animal healing, etc.) and some high arts (human healing, chanting, weatherworking). A student who showed a gift for sorcery and was sent to Roke for training would first study the high arts of sorcery, and if successful in them might pursue his training in the art magic, especially in naming, summoning, and patterning, and so become a wizard..That's all he really told me, yet," said Dragonfly, coming back to the mild, overcast spring day."If the Grove were cut, all wizardry would fail. The roots of those trees are the roots of..Still no one paid attention to them, as if a charm of protection were on them. They walked down..When in 730 the first Archmage of Roke, Halkel of Way, excluded women from the school, among his Nine Masters only the Patterner and the Doorkeeper protested; they were overruled. For more than three centuries, no woman taught or studied at the school on Roke. During those centuries, wizardry was an honored art, conferring status and power, while witchery was an unclean and ignorant superstition, practiced by women, paid for by peasants..Only the Doorkeeper answered.
