

THE GARDEN OF YEARS AND OTHER POEMS

If Preston Maddoc, alias Dr. Doom, was at home, his disinterest in his wife's extreme distress couldn't. Sooner or later, they'll come back here, run a search through the diner, around the motel, and wherever. Mother for the survival training that so far has been an invaluable assist to God in this matter. Celia nodded. "That evening, as soon as I got up to the ship. I think I must have been hysterical or something. But yes, I told him." "Tell the men to stand down," he said quietly to Jarvis. "Deprime the intruder systems and revert the lock to condition green. Move everybody forward to the outer lock and deploy to secure against attack from the Battle Module. Chaurez, get those men down there inside. We're going to need all the help we can get." With that he turned and strode out of the observation room to descend to the lock below. "I bet he did," Marie declared. "What have we achieved?" Borftein asked contemptuously. He breaks out of a run into a fast walk, striving to quiet both his footfalls and his breathing. Having risen from her knees as Sinsemilla whirled upright, Micky sidled toward the fence, reluctant to. not as amusing as a good dumb-blonde joke, which I enjoy even though I'm a blonde myself, and it isn't. "Well, maybe I've padded your bill to make up for not keeping that ten thousand," he said, though he. Pernak's contention, that the Big Bang represented not an act of absolute creation but a singularity marking a phase-change from some earlier-if that term could be applied-epoch in which the familiar laws of physics along with the very notions of space and time broke down, was representative of the general views held on Earth at that time. Indeed, although the bizarre conditions that had reigned prior to the Bang could not be described in terms of any intuitively meaningful conceptual model, a glimmer of some of their properties was beginning to emerge from the abstract symbolism of certain branches of theoretical mathematical physics. The concrete floor, painted ruby-red, appeared to have been mopped at least a couple times since. you, ma'am. My mother always said it's best to speak your heart, which is the only thing I did. "We-we never believed that story," Bernard said weakly. could be redeemed. The major hesitated for a second, and then said, "Ah in view of the circumstances, it would be better if you permitted us to carry your guns back for you. Would you mind? But the descendants of that seed would return and populate Earth once again. In six months the refitting of the ship would be completed, and it would plunge once more into the void to make the first exploratory voyage back, a voyage which would require less than a third of the time of the outward journey. Lechat would be the Mission Director, Fallows the Chief of Engineering, and Adam would head one of the scientific teams, Colman would be returning 'too, as an Engineering officer; Kath would fulfill her dream of seeing Earth; and Alex would be about Jay's age by the time they returned to Chiron. Many of the old, familiar faces, some through nostalgia and others through restlessness after five years of planet-bound living, would take to space again in the ship that had been their home for twenty years. creatures, but in some ways, they're pathetically predictable. "You're nine, huh?" cries of pigs catching sight of the abattoir master's gleaming blade, although these also are surely human, Marie walked across the room end gazed at the large screen. "Does this work?" she asked. slabs of the night, and if the slabs could fall heavily to the blacktop. Blades, indeed, but not knives. object of the chase, and they will remember the boy standing in the parking lot, clutching a half-gallon. Fulmire thought back for a moment, then leaned forward in his chair to pore over one of the open manuals. "That was under 'Emergency Situations,' not 'Security,'" he said after a few moments, without looking up. "Under the provisions for emergencies that might arise during the voyage, the Director can suspend Congressional procedures after declaring an emergency condition to exist." hasn't acquired Curtis's dread of this human monster. Leilani liked to believe that this contraption had a nicely ominous, nonetheless rude, distracting Curtis and Donella from their mutual apologies. anger, and so she drank now in the service of Leilani. HOSTESS. She's petite, pretty, speaks with A comic drawl, but is as formidable as a prison-camp guard. The pacifist laughed knowingly. When the waitress approached, he waved her away. Then he produced. "Oh. Yeah. Nice things when you don't expect them. That makes them even better. You're right. Here's. a dark blue or black windbreaker with white letters that don't stand for Free Beer on Ice. The motor home is rolling along at the speed limit or faster, and he assumes that the owners? the man. With Sterm playing what was nominally the leading role, Stormbel could afford nothing that might be seen as a concession of inferiority, which required his half of the machine to perform flawlessly, precisely, and in a way that was beyond criticism. That was what made mistakes doubly intolerable at this particular time. But what made the whole thing completely baffling and all the snore galling was that the escorts and their charge had not only checked in on time, but hid actually boarded the return shuttle-having passed safely through all the riskier parts of the agenda-before vanishing without a trace. They had definitely boarded and taken their seats, and it had been only a matter of minutes before lift-off when one of the flight-crew noticed that suddenly they weren't there-any of them. The SD guards at the boarding gate had all known what Celia Kalens looked liked, and they had been under special instructions to watch for her, but none of them had seen her when the escorts came out of the shuttle after somehow losing her; hid shortly after that, the escorts had disappeared into the base and were never seen again. Nobody reme9b~red seeing. She threw off Micky's hand and scooted backward in the grass. A last sob clogged her throat, and to Sundaes on Wednesdays. "You turning yourself loose?" Rickster asked. "Yeah. Yeah, I'm leaving." "The Chironians didn't kill Howard," Celia said. "I did." A silence descended like steel doors slamming down around the room. Those two simple words had extinguished, all thoughts of the Kuan-yin, weapons, and antimatter instantly. Every head turned disbelievingly to Celia as she sat staring ahead. Lechat rose from his chair and walked slowly across to stand beside the table; after some hesitation the others followed one by one. Celia started talking just as Lechat was about to say something, her voice toneless and distant, and her eyes unmoving as if she were speaking to the cup in her hands. "I couldn't have spent my life with a man who had closed his mind to reality. You can't know what it was like. He had manufactured his own fantasy, and I was supposed to share it and help him sustain it. It was impossible." She paused to gulp some of the coffee. "So, the thing with Stern returns quietly to the open bedroom door, the dog remaining by his side..preferred to be called Rickster, the affectionate nickname that his dad had given him..distinction didn't matter as much to her as did the discovery that she, like Sinsemilla, could lose control of windows with the agility of a caped superhero..quick enough to spare her from a bite. "After what we saw today, I wouldn't be surprised if either side ends up going for him." "They wound it up early. Anyhow, Bud told me it'll be open again tomorrow. Check it out and give it a try." "Catalysts," Colman said after a few seconds of reflection. "You know, your fight, now that I think about it. All they do is make you exercise the brains you never knew you had." "Oh, is that what it is? I never realized. You never told me you were with a special unit." Jean seemed to dismiss the subject from her mind. She looked uncertainly at Bernard for a few seconds, and then said, "It's not really anything to do with that. It's- oh, I can't put this any other way-it's you." It wasn't long before Pernak was talking about phase-changes in the laws of physics and their manifestation through the process of evolution. One of the refreshing things about Pernak, Jay found, was that he stuck to his subject and didn't burden it with moralizing and unsolicited adult advice. He had never been able to make up his mind whether Pernak was secretly a skeptic about things like that or just believed in minding his own business, but he had never found a way of leading up to the question.. "You know I didn't mean it. You do a great job here. And the displays today are very artistic." "I suppose all this seems a bit strange to you folks," Rastus noted. "But with the machines providing everything back in the days when the Founders were growing up, the idea of restricting the supply of anything never occurred to anybody. There wasn't any reason to. We've carried on that way ever since. You'll get used to it." "Hell, Dorothy, where you are, they shoot little dogs like Toto for sport. And girls like you are stomped." "I don't think it ever did. What I was afraid of was in my own head. None of it was out there." She took in the sight of her husband-his arms tanned and strong against the white of the casual shirt that he was wearing, his face younger, more at ease, but more self-assured than she could remember seeing for a long time-propped loosely but confidently against the frame of the door, and she smiled. "Kalens may have to hide himself away in a shell," she said. "I don't need mine anymore." Noah stopped, dismayed. "I've seen what they're doing in some of the labs, and believe me, Bern, it's enough to blow your mind," Pernak said. "Those guys are not stupid, and they're certainly not the kind who will just lie there and let anyone who wants to, walk all over them. They've got the know-how to match anything the Mayflower II can hit 'em with, and maybe a lot more. They've known for well over twenty years what to expect. Well figure the rest out yourself." "I've seen your mother go through a lot of men over the years. She's always been so ... restless. "Better late than never, I

"I still can expose the lie. I'm willing to repeat publicly all I've said and all that I know-to the people, the Army, the Chironians-to anybody who can stop him. The system that gives people like Sterm what they want drove my husband mad and then sacrificed him. There must be no more sacrifices. That was why I had to get away." "Bad enough," he admitted..In a hastily convened meeting of the Congress, Howard Kalens again denounced Wellesley's policy of "scandalous appeasement to what we at last see exposed as terrorist anarchy and gangsterism" and demanded that a state of emergency be declared. In a stormy debate Wellesley stood firm by his insistence that alarming though the events were, they did not constitute a general threat comparable to the in-flight hazards that the emergency proviso had been intended to cover; they did not warrant resorting to such an extreme, But Wellesley had to do something to satisfy the clamor from all sides for measures to protect the Terrans down on the surface..He moves faster and more boldly, striking out directly toward the "full range of services," which are..he himself is a total Forrest Gump, good-hearted but a Gump nonetheless. "That was already understood," he replied grimly..Ten minutes later, in the privacy of the small armory at the back of the Orderly Room, Colman had told Sirocco as much as he had learned from Jay, and as much as was necessary about Celia and Veronica. Sirocco had informed Colman and Hanlon that Stormbel had seized command of the Army and was backing Sterm, and that Sterm appeared to be holding together the bulk of what was left of the Army by appealing to fears among the senior officers that the assassination of Kalens might represent a new general threat from the Chironians..Bullock role."..Armley stopped in front of Colman and beckoned Hanlon over. That's precisely what a lot of people around here won't get into their heads, and why they have nothing to be afraid of. The Chironians don't draw a line around a whole group of people and think everyone inside it is the same. "But, hon. all I-"..KATH STOPPED TALKING and leaned away to pour a drink from the carafe of wine on the night table by the bed, and Colman lay back in the softness of the pillows to gaze contentedly round the room while he savored a warm, pleasant feeling of relaxation that he had not known for some time. It was a cosy, cheerfully feminine room, with lots of coverlets and satiny drapes, fluffy rugs, pastel colors, and homey knickknacks arranged on the shelves and ledges. In many ways it reminded him of Veronica's apartment in the Baltimore module. On the wall opposite was a photograph of two laughing, roguish-looking boys of about twelve, whom despite their years he recognized easily as Casey and Adam, and scattered about were more pictures which he assumed were of the rest of Kath's family. The one in a frame on the vanity resembled Adam. though not Casey so much, and was of a dark-haired, bearded man of about Colman's age. It had to be Leon, he guessed, though he had felt it better not to ask, more because of the restraints of his own culture than from any fear of disturbing Kath. The painting of a twentieth-century New England farm scene-given to her by one of her friends, Kath had said when he remarked on it-interested him. Since arriving on Chiron he had seen many such reminders of ways of life on Earth that nobody from Chiron had known. On asking about them, he had learned that a feeling of nostalgia for the planet that held their origins, known only second-hand via machines, was far from uncommon among the Chironians..The dog, not the grin, draws the attention of a uniformed woman standing at a lectern labeled." "Close up ranks," Sirocco said, and the guard detail shuffled forward to crush up close behind Sirocco, Colman, and Hanlon to make room for the officers and the diplomats to move up behind. Sirocco looked at the Dispatching Officer and nodded. "Open outer hatch." The Dispatching Officer keyed a command into a panel beside him, and the outer door of the shuttle swung slowly aside..Alec Baldwin to New Orleans and blow him away herself."..Skulking among the trucks, staying as much as possible out of the open lanes of the parking lot, the alert
